| alie A cre | n eature from another world. |
|-----------------------|--|
| | ronaut rson who uses a spacecraft to travel in space. |
| | stellation oup of stars that make a pattern in the sky. |
| | s h-land Iddenly land an aeroplane or spacecraft because of an emergency. |
| | vity Force that pulls things to the ground on Earth and other planets. |
| | r tian eone or something from the planet Mars. |
| mo A na | on tural object that moves around a planet. |
| | on buggy hicle used by astronauts to explore the Moon. |
| Ame | SA National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) is an rican organisation that is in charge of the science and technology ed to explore air and space. |
| | er space universe, especially beyond our Solar System. |
| pla i A lar | net ge, round object in space that moves around the Sun or another star. |
| 10.00 | |

| robot A machine that can do one or more tasks. Some robots are made to look and act like humans. rocket A vehicle or object that is launched into space by a powerful rocket engine. science fiction Stories about the science or technology of the future. Science fiction stories are sometimes about space and time travel. signal An action or sound that is used to send information. solar system A group of planets and moons that move around a star. Our Solar System has eight planets. space The universe beyond the Earth. spacecraft A vehicle used to travel in space. specimen A small amount of something or an object that is collected to be tested. star A massive ball of burning gas that gives off light. The Sun is a star. UFO An Unidentified Flying Object (UFO) is a strange object seen in the sky that some people think is an alien spacecraft. | | |
|--|--------------|---|
| A vehicle or object that is launched into space by a powerful rocket engine. science fiction Stories about the science or technology of the future. Science fiction stories are sometimes about space and time travel. signal An action or sound that is used to send information. solar system A group of planets and moons that move around a star. Our Solar System has eight planets. space The universe beyond the Earth. spacecraft A vehicle used to travel in space. specimen A small amount of something or an object that is collected to be tested. star A massive ball of burning gas that gives off light. The Sun is a star. UFO An Unidentified Flying Object (UFO) is a strange object seen in the sky | A machine t | |
| Stories about the science or technology of the future. Science fiction stories are sometimes about space and time travel. signal An action or sound that is used to send information. solar system A group of planets and moons that move around a star. Our Solar System has eight planets. space The universe beyond the Earth. spacecraft A vehicle used to travel in space. specimen A small amount of something or an object that is collected to be tested. star A massive ball of burning gas that gives off light. The Sun is a star. UFO An Unidentified Flying Object (UFO) is a strange object seen in the sky | A vehicle or | object that is launched into space by a powerful rocket |
| solar system A group of planets and moons that move around a star. Our Solar System has eight planets. space The universe beyond the Earth. spacecraft A vehicle used to travel in space. specimen A small amount of something or an object that is collected to be tested. star A massive ball of burning gas that gives off light. The Sun is a star. UFO An Unidentified Flying Object (UFO) is a strange object seen in the sky | Stories abou | ut the science or technology of the future. Science fiction |
| A group of planets and moons that move around a star. Our Solar System has eight planets. space The universe beyond the Earth. spacecraft A vehicle used to travel in space. specimen A small amount of something or an object that is collected to be tested. star A massive ball of burning gas that gives off light. The Sun is a star. UFO An Unidentified Flying Object (UFO) is a strange object seen in the sky | • | r sound that is used to send information. |
| The universe beyond the Earth. spacecraft A vehicle used to travel in space. specimen A small amount of something or an object that is collected to be tested. star A massive ball of burning gas that gives off light. The Sun is a star. UFO An Unidentified Flying Object (UFO) is a strange object seen in the sky | A group of p | olanets and moons that move around a star. Our Solar System |
| specimen A small amount of something or an object that is collected to be tested. star A massive ball of burning gas that gives off light. The Sun is a star. UFO An Unidentified Flying Object (UFO) is a strange object seen in the sky | - | e beyond the Earth. |
| A small amount of something or an object that is collected to be tested. star A massive ball of burning gas that gives off light. The Sun is a star. UFO An Unidentified Flying Object (UFO) is a strange object seen in the sky | | |
| A massive ball of burning gas that gives off light. The Sun is a star. UFO An Unidentified Flying Object (UFO) is a strange object seen in the sky | - | |
| An Unidentified Flying Object (UFO) is a strange object seen in the sky | | all of burning gas that gives off light. The Sun is a star. |
| | An Unidenti | |

